
kaeng!

kaeng! is a three-headed monster, a musical bastard born in 2007.

Its three heads are called

Frankaeng (vocals & guitar)

Christaeng (drums)

Martaeng (bass).

kaeng! is mowing down everything what's standing in its way with its pounding, stamping sound. Powerful, indeed!

In its youth, kaeng! inhaled a lot of music like Kyuss, Helmet and Tool and assimilated stuff like Queens of the Stone Age, Melvins and Motörhead. The result of these influences can be found on kaeng!'s first 3-Song-CD which was released in 2007.

The new record, simply entitled "kaeng!" released in 2008 is already sold out but a digipack repress is planned in near future.

Some of the people, who were lucky to see a show of the monster, described it like this:
"The three guys showcase a heavy load of guitars in brute measures."
(quoted from www.punkrockbergischland.de)

"For those who love stoner rock, kaeng is the right band!" (André, singer/guitarist from Nitrominds) kaeng! is here to conquer the world! Lots of shows were played in Germany already, now kaeng! is ready to export its cool mix of stoner, metal, punk and doom to the rest of the world! The first brasilian Tour in Summer 2008 with the band "Nitrominds" was a blast.
